CONSIGNER NUMBER _____

CONSIGNMENT CONTRACT

This Consignment Contract is between Green Door Consignment Company, LLC, a Minnesota limited liability company (2 Seattle Sisters) and _____ ("Consigner") and shall be effective as of the date it has been signed by both of said parties.

The terms of this Consignment Contract shall be binding on Green Door Consignment Company and Consigner.

Green Door Consignment Company sets the price of all consigned items; revision of the asking price will be taken at the store's discretion. We are careful and trustworthy but are not liable for lost or damaged items; all merchandise is left at your own risk. Consigner will not be paid for any goods not found for retrieval.

In regards to the items accepted and sold by Green Door Consignment Company, Consigner will receive 40% of the final item sale price, less any applicable taxes.

We will display your items for 90 days. The majority of time will be at full price. Before they expire, items may be reduced for varying periods of time. We will try and get the best possible price for you. Once your items sell, you have two payment choices: 1) instore credit or 2) cash/check for 40% of final price.

Consigner must keep track of their end consignment date. The Consigner will not be notified by Green Door Consignment Company of sales or pending pick-up dates. It is the Consigner's responsibility to call Green Door Consignment during the last week of your consignment period to schedule a pick up for unsold items. Any items not scheduled to be picked up at the end of the consignment period or not picked up three days after a scheduled pick up, becomes the property of Green Door Consignment Company. Holiday items must be picked up five days after the holiday or they become the property of Green Door Consignment Company.

After 90 days, unsold items become the property of Green Door Consignment Company and you will not receive credit for these items. These items may be reduced in price or donated to charity.
